The Vickery Extension Project Community Consultative Committee (CCC) is looking for a mix of people who live locally or are members of a local community or stakeholder group (e.g. social, environment, Aboriginal or industry) to contribute constructively to committee discussions, attend around four meetings a year, and communicate information about the mine's social and environmental operations between the committee and the broader community. Committee membership is voluntary. Whitehaven employees and contractors are not eligible for appointment to the committee as a community representative.

To make an Expression of Interest to join the Vickery Extension Project CCC, please review the criteria, complete an application form (available at our website) and return it to the independent chairperson of the CCC, Roberta Ryan at Roberta.Ryan@newcastle.edu.au or PO Box 600, Gunnedah, NSW 2380. For more information on becoming a CCC member contact Roberta Ryan on 0402 209 896.
